

Practice in BC

Attachment 3
Municipality	Pit Meter Required?	Subdivision or BP?	Costs associated?	Supplied by
Kelowna	Yes in rural areas (large properties or other pre-meter connection risks)	Acquired from SE Irrigation District	Not specified	Not specified
Peachland	Yes	Subdivision	Borne by developer	Pit by developer, meter by municipality
Penticton	Yes for dwellings set back from roadway or panhandles.	Subdivision	$2,250 for supply and install, $865 if waterline is already exposed	Municipality or developer
Oliver	Yes on a risk assessed basis	BP typically	Borne by developer	Municipality or developer
Salmon Arm	Yes for dwellings more than 25m from roadway	Subdivision and BP for renos or new home construction	Borne by developer	Developer
Langley	Yes, pits are installed but meters are being phased in	Subdivision	Not specified	Developer
Chilliwack	Yes	Subdivision or BP depending	Borne by developer	Municipality
Abbotsford	Yes	Subdivision and BP	Borne by developer	Pit by developer, meter by municipality
Squamish	Yes	Subdivision	Borne by developer	Developer via approved product list
Nanaimo	Yes	Subdivision	Borne by developer	Developer via approved product list
Sechelt	Yes	Subdivision	Borne by municipality	Municipality